Introduction to the UN Race to Resilience

What is the Race to Resilience?

A Global campaign - the sibling to Race to Zero – that aims to catalyse a step-change in global ambition for climate resilience putting people and nature first in the pursuit of a resilient world where we don't just survive climate shocks and stresses but thrive in spite of them.

Who leads the Race to Resilience and what is its vision and goal?

- Led by High-Level Climate Champions for Climate Action (Nigel Topping and Gonzalo Muñoz)
- Responds to UNSG and COP26 President's priorities on adaptation and resilience.
- Vision by 2050, to live in a world where all communities thrive in the face of the multiple risks and uncertainty posed by climate change.
- Goal is by 2030, to catalyse action by non-state actors that builds the resilience of 4 billion people from groups and communities who are vulnerable to climate risks.

Who can join the Race to Resilience?

1. Initiatives - alliances, coalitions, networks, associations & platforms - led by non-state actors - can involve states - can join Race to Resilience.

2. They must share the Race to Resilience vision and goal.

3. Companies, cities, regions, NGOs and other non-state actors cannot join on their own. They become members of the Race to Resilience through an approved initiative.
